Final Hymn: NEH 436 (Praise my soul the King of Heaven)

The Collect: Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

FOR 8am SERVICE

Post Communion: Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Refreshments are served in the Chapter House after the Sunday 9.15am and Thursday 10.30am service and all are welcome to stay

First Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Second Reading: Mark 6:14-29

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

DATE FOR THE DIARY

ST ROBERT'S BEER FESTIVAL

FRIDAY 5TH AND SATURDAY 6TH OCTOBER

Visit of Armley Meeting Point Women's Group, Wednesday
25 July, 10.00-3.00

St Robert's has a mission partnership with Meeting Point, a charity which supports refugees and asylum seekers in Leeds. Twice a year we invite members of their women's group to visit Pannal on the train and spend the day with us, including lunch. Some bring children and we play games and eat together. For these women it is a wonderful day out to somewhere they could never normally access.

We will also be collecting useful donations of clothes, bedding and toys for the charity. Please bring donations to church between Sunday 8 July and Sunday 22 July.

We would also be very grateful for any food contributions towards the buffet on the 25th - there will be a list at the back of church containing the type of items we would like to provide at the buffet.

Many Thanks

New Church Café starting September Seeking Volunteers

From 10th September we will be running a weekly café in the Chapter House on Monday mornings from 8.45am-10.30am. This aims to open up the church building to the community as somewhere to meet up over coffee. We are looking for volunteers to help run the café. If you would be interested in helping serve, bake or in any other way, please contact Judith Colbert (judithandchris@gmail.com) or Vicky Dall (edgevictoria@hotmail.com).
